

Dmitriy Kirillov

Head of Projects,
Attorney at Law

Specialization: Private clients, civil law, family law, litigation, NGOs

Dmitry Kirillov's projects have been recognized by the international (Legal 500) and Russian (Pravo.ru-300, Kommersant, Forbes) ratings.

Dmitry Kirillov is the project manager of private client practice and an expert in civil law, litigation, and family law. He has considerable experience in providing legal support to non-profit organizations and projects, including creative teams and charitable organizations.

Education

Dmitry graduated from the Faculty of Law of the St. Petersburg State University and also completed a master's degree in criminal law at the St. Petersburg State University.

Ratings

Dmitry Kirillov's projects in the field of private and family law have been recognized by international (Legal 500) and Russian (Pravo.ru-300, Kommersant, Forbes) ratings.

Dmitriy Kirillov

Head of Projects,
Attorney at Law

Project experience

Legal support for a charitable organization.

Representing a client in court disputes between the client and his proxy who made transactions for the alienation of the Client's real estate to the detriment of the client's interests.

Legal support for the restructuring and settlement of debts of a well-known charitable project.

Legal support for the acquisition of a high-value real estate object classified as a cultural heritage object from multiple co-owners.

Tax planning for an individual who receives income in various jurisdictions and is a tax resident of several states.

Legal support for a Russian qualified investor in connection with securities transfers and conversions in a situation where the investor's broker was included on the sanctions list.

Settlement of a family dispute between spouses complicated by existence of jointly acquired property in different jurisdictions.
