

Anastasiya Gurina

Head of Projects,
Attorney at Law

Specialization: Private clients, family law, art transactions, intellectual property, civil law, charity and NGOs

Anastasiya Gurina's projects have been recognized by Russian ratings (Pravo.ru-300).

Profile

Anastasiya Gurina is a project manager in the private client practice and a specialist in family law, inheritance law, copyright and intellectual property. Her practical interests include coordinating litigation in various foreign jurisdictions, implementing complex projects for the recovery of compensation for moral damages, resolving complex family law issues, handling real estate transactions and structuring assets, including in the field of art.

Anastasiya has experience of providing legal assistance to non-profit organizations, both in support of their ongoing activities and in various creative projects.

Anastasiya graduated with honors with Bachelor's and Master's degrees from the Moscow State Law University named after O.Ye. Kutafin.

Projects led by Anastasiya Gurina in the field of private and civil law, charity and NGOs have been awarded by the leading international and Russian ratings Legal 500, Forbes, Pravo.ru-300 and Kommersant.

In 2020, the project, whose team included Anastasiya Gurina, was recognized as the most significant Pro bono project of the year, receiving high recognition from the professional community and experts from the Pravo.ru-300 rating.

Anastasia Gurina

Head of Projects,
Attorney at Law

Project experience

Preparation of a legal opinion on the intended use of the land plot and the cultural heritage monument located on it for restaurant activities and leasing of the property with an assessment of possible risks.

Legal support for the purchase and sale of more than 20 non-residential premises, a land plot, and a share in the ownership of a car park, using multiple payment methods.

Representing a client (including in foreign jurisdictions) in the settlement of family property disputes in divorce cases worth over RUB 1.7bn

Legal support for the split of multi-million matrimonial assets complicated by foreign credit and shares in companies.

Preparation of a legal opinion describing the family law risks for the owner of one of Russia's largest holdings (consisting of over 150 companies) and development of mechanisms to minimize or eliminate them.

Legal support for the foundation's activities assisting people with autism: implementation of employment programs for people with disabilities, design and support of all productions and musicals performed by the foundation and its mentees with an autism spectrum disorder together with professional actors; support for charitable grants; support for the foundation's governing bodies; drafting contracts; interaction with state authorities; pre-trial dispute resolution.

Anastasia Gurina

Head of Projects,
Attorney at Law

Project experience

Development of a customized management structure for a collection of several thousand museum objects through a group of companies.

Legal support for 23 cases seeking moral damages in favor of parents whose children with cancer were infected with hepatitis C in a hospital in Blagoveschensk

Preparing a comprehensive opinion on all areas of the client's business to identify possible inheritance, administrative, tax and litigation risks and develop ways to minimize them

Legal support for the creative work of a Russian writer, including support for contracts for productions based on his works, and for the recording of podcasts and the writer's speaking engagements at conferences.

Defending a family in a case to recover compensation for moral damages from a medical institution for the death of a newborn baby due to a birth injury inflicted by medical staff.

Development of a management structure for a non-profit organization - cultural center, taking into account its activities, risks of recognition as a foreign agent, tax optimization, as well as the assumed sources of funding for its activities.
